

A rich history of changing lives.

Jewish Family Services helps individuals and families achieve economic independence and emotional stability. We provide a unique combination of mental health and workforce development services, using a person-centered approach to tailor services to meet the complex needs of the people who come through our doors.

Our organization is rooted in a rich history of Jewish values. Our services are not limited to those in the Jewish community, but are available to individuals of all races, ethnicities, and religions and from all economic circumstances. Our dedicated and talented staff reflects the diverse communities we serve.

Position Opening:
Business Tech Intern- Paid (Part-time)

Jewish Family Services is seeking to hire an intern interested in business data & technology, to assist with program related tech we are researching and applying. The person in this role will assist with the integration of our new CRM (Customer Relationship Management) system and help us identify & implement new technology to innovate our service delivery model. There may be other work based on our needs and the candidate's interests.

This is a part-time position and hours are negotiable. We are anticipating up to 10 hours per week. Pay is $15/hr.

If you are interested in applying for the position, please send a resume and cover letter to Julie Wasserstrom, Director of Business Development Services at jwasserstrom@jfscolumbus.org.

We believe that we should treat ourselves and each other with dignity and respect.

We believe that all people, no matter how different, are connected.

We believe that people should feel safe in their homes and community.

We believe that we have a communal responsibility to stand up for each other, especially for those among us who are vulnerable.

We believe that we should speak honestly, straightforwardly and respectfully.

We believe that we should respect and accept our neighbors as ourselves.

We believe in being fully engaged and "all in."